RHYTHMS OF GRACE

An aerial photograph of ocean waves crashing onto a sandy beach. The water is a deep, dark blue-green, and the foam is a bright, frothy white. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. The word "WORK" is superimposed in the center of the image in a large, white, serif font.

WORK

Bondservants, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.

God Wants Us To Work Hard

Col 3:17; Eph 6:5-8; Prov 20:23; 12:22; 13:4; 21:5

As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies — in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
